PURPOSE

The purpose of this terms of reference is to outline the expectations and duties of the AAA Council and of its individual councillors.

1.0 STATEMENT OF GOVERNANCE PRINCIPLES

The AAA Council has a duty to:

1.1 Set direction

- Set and regularly review the association's vision, mission, and values.
- Manage the business and affairs of the association in a manner that is consistent with the vision, mission, and values.
- Delegate authority to the Chief Staff Officer (Executive Director) for the leadership and day-to-day management of the association.

1.2 Meet regulatory obligations

- Ensure the regulatory responsibilities and obligations of the association established by the Architects Act, General Regulation and bylaws are being carried out.
- Approve and monitor policies that are intended to require and support compliance with the laws, regulations, agreements, policies and procedures by which the association is bound.

1.3 Make certain the necessary resources are available

- Give balanced consideration to the needs and interests of all stakeholders.
- Check to see that the association's priorities are adequately reflected in the annual budget.
- Develop policies concerning the management of the association's funds.
- Strive to have a Council whose composition reflects the strategic needs of the organization.

1.4 Provide accountability through oversight

- Contract with an outside auditor for the annual audit.
- Develop a risk management policy and plan.
- Regularly monitor and evaluate the organization's programs.
- Provide the Executive Director with regular performance reviews.

1.5 Conduct effective Council operations

- Govern and communicate with transparency, accountability, and integrity toward all stakeholders.
- Make certain the Council has access to the information and knowledge required to provide informed and relevant leadership.
- Speak with one voice once a decision has been made.

2.0 EXPECTATIONS OF THE COUNCIL

2.1 Manage the business and affairs of the organization

The Council is committed to ensuring that the organization is viable and continually strives to demonstrate its values and mission to its members, stakeholders, and the wider community.

The Council specifically utilizes the Executive Director, Treasurer and Council Committees to establish expertise and transparent oversight with the organization structure and activities.

2.2 Manage the Council and Council Committees

The Council is responsible for maintaining, implementing and achieving good governance practices that include:

- A process to evaluate the performance of the Council, committees and individual councillors in fulfilling their responsibilities.
- A process for the new councillor orientation and ongoing Council development.
- A periodic review of the composition of the Council.
- Appointment of the Council President.
- The adoption of a governing style that strives to make good decisions in an environment that celebrates diversity and welcomes a variety of points of view.

2.2.1 Council membership criteria

Beyond the specific criteria outlined in the AAA bylaws, the Council actively engages in succession planning, recruiting Council members from diverse professional and personal backgrounds, with a reputation for integrity who combine a broad spectrum of experience, and expertise with a commitment to the association's mandate.

2.2.2 Council President, Past President, Vice President and Treasurer

As per the AAA bylaws, Council shall meet as soon as reasonably possible after the annual general meeting to attend to the business of election of officers and chair appointments.

- The individual who acts as Vice President in any Council year becomes President the following year, without the need to be re-elected to Council.
- The individual who acts as President in any Council year becomes Immediate Past President the following year.
- The Council shall elect a Vice-President from existing Council members.
- The Council shall elect a Treasurer from existing Council members who will be responsible for the oversight and integrity of the organization's financial reporting systems, as well as the proper maintenance of the nonfinancial records of the organization.

2.2.3 Chair appointments

The Council shall make appointments from time-to-time as per the governing legislation including the positions of Registrar, Chair of Registration Committee, and Chair of Reinstatement Committee.

2.2.4 Council meetings

- As per the AAA bylaws, the Council must meet at least six (6) times per year on such dates and at such times and places as it decides. The President may call a meeting of the Council at any time.
- Notice of date, time and place of the Council meetings shall be given by the Executive Director to each member of the Council at least 24 hours before the meeting.
- The Council President and the Executive Director should establish the agenda for Council meetings; each Council member is free to suggest items for the agenda.
- The AAA administration will distribute sufficiently in advance of Council meetings written materials to permit meaningful review and preparation by councillors.
- Should the Council wish to consider any matters in-camera, management, any guests, and ex-officio members will be excused and following the meeting, the Council President will report to the Executive Director any action items and/or decisions made by the Council during that in-camera session.

2.2.5 Assessing Council Performance

The Council and Committees will conduct an annual self-evaluation to determine whether it, its members, and its committees are functioning effectively.

2.2.6 Access to staff and contractors

- Council members have complete and open access to the Executive Director for consultation.
- Direction on work priorities is to come only from the Council President.
- Unless otherwise specified, Council member access to other staff or contractors shall be through the Executive Director.

2.2.7 Public communications

The Council believes that, in general, management should speak for the association and that the Council President should speak for the Council.

2.2.8 Professional advisors

As part of the Council's independence, it has the authority to hire independent legal, financial, or other advisors at the expense of the organization. Any such retainer should be made upon consultation with the Council President and shall be reported to the Council at its next meeting.

2.3 Establish and Monitor AAA Strategic Plan

The Council is expected to see that the association develops and implements a long-term vision and strategic plan that is consistent with the regulatory obligations, values and mission of the organization.

The Council will participate with management in the association's strategic planning process including:

- Providing input to management on emerging trends and issues within the community and the association.
- Ensuring that the association develops a strategic plan.
- Reviewing and approving the strategic plan.
- Overseeing management's implementation of the strategic plan.
- Evaluating the association's performance against the strategic plan.
- Monitor the association's progress toward its goals and through management, revise and alter the organization's direction in light of changing circumstances.

2.4 Human Resources Management

The Council has responsibility for:

- The appointment, termination, and succession of the Executive Director; and all terms associated with this position.
- Both monitoring position performance of and providing counsel to the Executive Director in the execution of his/her duties.
- Ensuring that succession planning programs are in place for senior management, including programs to train and develop members of the management team.
- Being aware of matters relating to all the organization's employees, including:
 - The compensation policy/program for employees.
 - Material new benefit programs or material changes to existing programs.
 - Material benefits granted to retiring employees outside of benefits received under approved pension and other benefit programs.

2.5 Risk Management

The Council is expected to:

- Monitor the association's performance against the strategic, operating and capital plans and financial budgets, including assessing operating results to evaluate management performance and whether the association is meeting its objectives.
- Receive, at least annually, reports from management on matters relating to proper financial accounting, reporting and disclosure, insurance of assets, directors and officers' liability insurance, and employee health and safety.
- Assess and monitor management control systems by evaluating and assessing the information provided by management and others.

2.6 Financial Accountability

The Council is expected to:

- Review and approve the association's financial objectives, plans, and actions including significant capital allocations and expenditures.
- Approve annual and longer-term capital and operating budgets to meet the goals established in the strategic plan.
- Require the engagement, at all times, of an independent, external auditor.
- Review management's variance reports from approved program and budget plan focusing on year end results of the association.
- Monitor operational and financial results.
- Approve the annual audited financial statements and all other financial statements that are to be published by the association for general distribution.
- Review key issues regarding material corporate insurance policies.
- Review the commencement and progress of any litigation that is expected to have a material impact on the association.

3.0 COUNCIL EXPECTATIONS OF THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The Council appoints the Executive Director and delegates authority to the Executive Director to enable him/her to meet the primary responsibility of providing leadership to the organization.

The Executive Director is accountable to Council, and any of his or her management group is expected to:

- Formulate strategies and plans for the organization's business and to present them to the Council for approval. Once approved, these become the goals and objectives of the association.
- Build and maintain an administrative structure for the association that will enable it to fulfill its mission.
- Honestly and candidly keep the Council fully informed as to the association's progress and of any material deviations from the goals, objectives, or policies established or approved by the Council.
- Act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the association while exercising the care, diligence, and skill that a reasonably prudent person would exercise in comparable circumstances.
- Continually evaluate the performance of management with respect to these goals and objectives.

4.0 EXPECTATIONS OF INDIVIDUAL MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL

As a member of the Council, each councillor will:

- Understand the organization's strategic goals and plans
- Display high ethical standards and integrity: In personal and professional dealings, and be willing to act upon and remain accountable for Council room decisions.
