DEFINITIONS

1.0 In this bylaw
   (a) “Act” means The Architects Act, RSA 2000 Chapter A-44 as amended;
   (b) “Executive Director” means the individual employed as Executive Director of the Association by resolution of the Council;
   (c) “Voting Member” means a registered architect or licensed interior designer entitled to vote or act on matters pursuant to these bylaws;

2.0 Unless the contrary intention appears, The Interpretation Act, RSA 2000, Chapter I8 as amended, applies to this bylaw.

3.0 Any terms used in this bylaw that have been defined in the Act or in any regulation under the Act shall have the same meaning ascribed to them in the Act or regulation as the case may be.

PART 1
HEAD OFFICE AND COMMON SEAL OF THE ASSOCIATION

1.1 The head office of the Association shall be located in Edmonton.

1.2 The Common Seal of the Association shall contain the words “The Alberta Association of Architects, Incorporated 1906”.

1.3 The Executive Director or in the Executive Director’s absence or inability to act, the President or an individual designated by the President, shall have custody of the Common Seal of the Association.

PART 2
ASSOCIATION MEETINGS

2.1 Annual General Meeting

   (1) The Association shall hold an annual general meeting each year.
   (2) The Council shall set the date of the annual general meeting.
   (3) The place of the annual general meeting shall be specified:
       (a) by the immediately preceding annual general meeting; or
       (b) by a special general meeting preceding the annual general meeting.
   (4) If a place for the annual general meeting is not specified pursuant to subsection (3) or if unforeseen circumstances arise, the place may be specified by the Council.

2.2 Notice

   (1) At least fifteen (15) days before an annual general meeting the Executive Director shall send to each voting member:
       (a) notice of the meeting; and
       (b) a copy of audited financial statements of the Association for the preceding year or notice of a means of electronically accessing audited financial statements of the Association for the preceding year.
   (2) Except when these bylaws otherwise provide; only voting members are entitled to vote at an annual general meeting.

Special General Meeting

2.3(1) The Council may call a special general meeting of voting members at any time.
(2) The Council shall call a special general meeting of voting members if:
   (a) a request to do so is submitted to the Council by at least twenty-five (25) voting members; and
   (b) the purpose of the meeting is specified in the request.
(3) Upon receipt of a request under subsection (2), the Council shall call a special general meeting within 45 days of receipt of the request.
(4) If the Council calls a special general meeting to consider enactment, amendments or repeal of bylaws, at least 15 days’ notice of the date, time, place and purpose of the meeting must be given to each voting member.
(5) If the Council calls a special general meeting to consider a subject other than enactment, amendment or repeal of by-laws, at least 7 days’ notice in writing must be given to each voting member of the date, time, place and purpose of the meeting.
(6) Except when these bylaws otherwise provide; only voting members are entitled to vote at a special general meeting.
Quorum

2.4 Fifty (50) voting members constitute a quorum for the annual general meeting or a special general meeting of the Association.

Rules of Procedure

2.5 The rules of order and procedure at an annual general meeting or special general meeting shall be those normally accepted rules of order and procedure governing meetings of a like nature, but if a dispute arises, the dispute shall be settled by the chair of the meeting and the chair’s decision is final.

PART 3
ELECTION TO THE COUNCIL

Disqualification

3.1 If an individual ceases to be a voting member, that person is disqualified from:
   (a) nominating or being nominated as a candidate for election to the Council;
   (b) continuing to stand as a candidate for election to the Council; or
   (c) voting in an election for the Council membership, as the case may be.

Nominating Committee

3.2(1) Each year the Council shall establish a nominating committee composed of:
   (a) a chair who shall be appointed by the Council;
   (b) at least one registered architect appointed by the chair of the nominating committee who is resident in the area lying north of a line drawn east and west on the southernmost limits of the City of Red Deer;
   (c) at least one registered architect appointed by the chair of the nominating committee who is resident in the area lying south of the line referred to in clause (b);
   (d) at least one licensed interior designer appointed by the chair of the nominating committee; and
   (e) such other registered architects or licensed interior designers as the chair of the nominating committee considers necessary.

(2) The nominating committee shall prepare a list of nominees as candidates for the Council membership consisting of at least that number of individuals required to fill the vacancies on the Council.

(3) The list of candidates compiled by the nominating committee shall be sent to each voting member at least ninety (90) days before the annual general meeting.

(4) During the period between ninety (90) days and sixty (60) days before the annual general meeting any combination of four (4) or more voting members may nominate a registered architect or licensed interior designer who is not on the list of candidates compiled by the nominating committee if:
   (a) the nomination is in writing and is received by the Executive Director at least sixty (60) days before the annual general meeting; and
   (b) the nominee consents in writing to stand as a candidate for election.

Withdrawal of Nominations

3.3(1) Any individual nominated may withdraw provided written notification is received by the Executive Director at least thirty-five (35) days before the Annual General Meeting.

(2) If, after one or more candidates have withdrawn, become disqualified or died, the number of candidates does not exceed the number of vacancies on the Council to be filled, no further withdrawals shall be made or accepted.

Disqualification or Death after Nominations Close

3.4(1) Subject to subsection (2), if a candidate becomes disqualified or dies between the date nominations close and the date the election results are announced by the President and the disqualification or death results in fewer candidates than there are vacancies to be filled on the Council, the election shall proceed in all respects as if the candidate had not become disqualified or died until immediately after the individual was elected as a member of the Council.

(2) An individual elected by virtue of the operation of subsection (1) shall not be considered as having been elected to or as having served on the Council except for the purpose of section 4.9 (4)
Late Nominations

3.5 If a candidate becomes disqualified or dies before nominations close, and as a result the number of candidates is less than the number required to fill the vacancies on the Council, the nominating committee shall nominate one or more other registered architects or licensed interior designers to replace the former candidate or candidates.

Election by Acclamation

3.6 If on the date nominations close there are the same number of candidates nominated for election to the Council as there are vacancies to be filled, the President shall, at the annual general meeting, declare those candidates elected and no vote is required to be held.

Ballots Mailed

3.7(1) At least thirty (30) days before the annual general meeting the Executive Director shall send to each voting member a ballot in the form prescribed by resolution of the Council which may include an electronic ballot.

(2) Each ballot shall contain:
   (a) the name of each nominated candidate with the names arranged alphabetically by surname and, if two (2) or more candidates have the same surname, the names of those candidates shall be arranged alphabetically in the order of their given names; and
   (b) a brief explanatory note stating the maximum number of candidates for which a vote may be cast to make the ballot valid.

(3) When a ballot is sent out, it may be accompanied by a brief biography of each candidate for election containing such information about each candidate as the Council prescribes.

Voting

3.8(1) Voting for membership on the Council commences on the day the ballots are mailed to voting members and ends on noon of the fifth (5) day before the annual general meeting or such other date as may be set by the Council.

(2) No candidate or other individual shall campaign for or against any candidates for election to the Council during the period that voting is permitted.

(3) Each voting member has the same number of votes as there are vacancies for membership on the Council.

(4) Not more than one vote may be cast by a voting member for a candidate.

(5) A voting member need not cast all the votes that the member is entitled to cast.

(6) A voting member that uses a paper ballot shall mark it in accordance with section 3.9 and those votes shall be processed in accordance with sections 3.10 to 3.13.

(7) Alternatively, a voting member may use an electronic ballot provided by the Association.

(8) The scrutineers shall add the electronic ballot results to the paper ballot results to determine the results of the election under section 3.15.

Marking Ballots

3.9(1) A voting member who votes shall mark the ballot paper by placing an "X" on the right hand side of the ballot opposite the name of the candidate or candidates for whom the member wishes to vote.

(2) The marked ballot shall be enclosed in a sealed envelope identified on the outside with only the word "Ballot".

(3) The envelope marked "Ballot" shall be placed in another envelope signed by the voter on the outside of the envelope in the place indicated on the envelope.

(4) In order to maintain a secret ballot, no identifying mark shall be placed on the ballot.

(5) The envelopes containing the marked ballot shall be sent or delivered to the Executive Director.
Ballot Box

3.10(1) Upon receipt of an envelope signed in accordance with section 3.9 the Executive Director shall deposit the unopened envelope or cause it to be deposited, in a locked ballot box.

(2) An envelope not signed in accordance with section 3.9 that contains or purports to contain a ballot envelope shall be destroyed unopened.

(3) The ballot box shall be lockable, made of durable material, and constructed so that the envelopes containing the ballots can be deposited in it through a slot but cannot be withdrawn from it unless the box is unlocked.

(4) The Executive Director shall retain possession of the key during the period that the ballot box must be locked.

(5) The ballot box shall not be unlocked or opened during the period that voting is permitted.

Close of Voting

3.11(1) At noon on the fifth day before the annual general meeting or such other date as is fixed by the Council, the ballot box shall be sealed.

(2) An envelope marked in accordance with section 3.9 that is received by the Executive Director after noon on the date specified or referred to in subsection 3.9(1) shall be destroyed unopened.

Scrutineers Count Ballots

3.12(1) A Past President who is a voting member and two (2) other scrutineers appointed by the Council shall meet for the purpose of counting the ballots. At the appointed time of the vote count, the Executive Director shall unlock the ballot box in the presence of the scrutineers.

(2) The 3 scrutineers shall:
   (a) open the envelopes signed on the outside by the voters and extract the envelope marked "Ballot";
   (b) mix the unopened envelopes marked "Ballot" to maintain a secret ballot;
   (c) count the votes; and
   (d) maintain such records as are necessary to ensure that the ballots have been properly cast and counted.

(3) An envelope in the envelope signed by the voter that is not marked "Ballot", which purports to contain a ballot paper, shall be destroyed unopened.

(4) A ballot paper improperly marked or marked with more than the maximum number of votes permitted shall be marked "spoiled" and shall not be counted.

Secrecy

3.13(1) After the ballot box has been sealed a Past President, who is a voting member and two (2) other scrutineers appointed by the Council shall meet for the purpose of counting the ballots.

(2) The three (3) scrutineers and any other person requested to be present during the counting of the ballots shall keep secret the counting of the votes and the election records until the President announces the results of the election.

Tie Vote

3.14 In the event of a tie vote the most recent Past President who is a voting member shall cast a vote to break the tie.

Election Results Certified

3.15(1) The three (3) scrutineers shall, on determining the results of the election prepare a list of the elected candidates and certify the results as correct.

(2) The list of elected candidates shall be placed in a sealed envelope and given to and retained by the Executive Director until the opening of the annual general meeting.

(3) During the annual general meeting the Executive Director shall give the envelope containing the election results to the President.

Election Announcement

3.16 The President shall announce the results of the election at the annual general meeting and shall call for a motion for destruction of the ballots and associated election records and material.
PART 4
THE COUNCIL

Composition

4.1(1) The Council shall be composed of:
(a) nine (9) elected Registered Architects who are ordinarily resident in Alberta;
(b) the Immediate Past President;
(c) one (1) elected Licensed Interior Designer who is ordinarily resident in Alberta; and
(d) in accordance with section 8(1)(b) of the Act, one member of the public;

(2) The Executive Director is an ex officio, non-voting member of Council.

Other Representatives

4.2(1) The following representatives may be appointed by the Council as ex officio members:
(a) the Dean, Faculty of Environmental Design, University of Calgary, but if unable to consistently fulfill the obligations of this appointment, the Dean shall forward to the Association the name of an individual to act as replacement for the term;
(b) the Chair, Department of Interior Design, Mount Royal University, but if unable to consistently fulfill the obligation of this appointment, the Chair shall forward the name of an individual to act as replacement for the term;
(c) intern member in good standing, and
(d) one Licensed Interior Designer.

(2) The following student representatives:
(a) a student enrolled in their final year with the Faculty of Environmental Design, Architecture Program at the University of Calgary;
(b) a student enrolled in their final year in the Interior Design Program at Mount Royal University.

Ex Officio Members

4.3(1) An individual who is appointed or entitled to attend a meeting of the Council, a committee of the Council or a committee of the Association as an ex officio member may speak on any matter before the meeting at which this individual attends, but is not entitled to vote on any matter.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), an individual who is an ex officio member of the Council or of any committee of the Council or the Association, except the President, shall at the direction of the Council or a committee, as the case may be, leave the meeting for the period required.

Officers

4.4 The following are the officers of the Council:
(a) the President;
(b) the Vice President;
(c) the Treasurer;
(d) the Executive Director, ex officio and non-voting.

Taking Office

4.5 A newly-elected Council takes office immediately following the close of the annual general meeting at which the election results are announced and holds office until the close of the next annual general meeting.

Election of Officers and Chair Appointments

4.6(1) The Council shall meet as soon as reasonably possible after the annual general meeting to attend to the business of election of officers and chair appointments. Subject to any provision of this by-law to the contrary:
(a) the individual who acts as Vice President in any Council year becomes President the following year, without the need to be re-elected to the Council;
(b) the individual who acts as President in any Council year becomes Immediate Past President the following year without the need to be re-elected to the Council;
(c) the Council shall elect a Vice-President from existing Council members;
(d) the Council shall elect a Treasurer from existing Council members;
(e) the Council shall appoint Council as chairs to committees as required.

(2) The Council members not holding an office shall be known as “Councilors”.
Length of Office

4.7(1) The person elected as Vice President holds that office until the annual general meeting following election as Vice President and shall become President in the immediately following term.

(2) The individual holding the office of President holds that office until the next annual general meeting regardless of the term for which the individual was elected to the Council and then becomes Immediate Past President for a one-year term. The Council may, at its discretion, extend the term of office of any President for a maximum of one additional year.

(3) The Immediate Past President holds office until the close of the annual general meeting. The Council may extend the term of office of the Immediate Past President for one additional year provided it has also extended the term of office of the President.

(4) The Treasurer holds office until a replacement Treasurer is elected by Council

(5) Councilors hold office until the close of the annual general meeting two years following their election.

(6) Notwithstanding anything in this bylaw:
   (a) if a member of the Council ceases to be a registered architect or licensed interior designer that person’s membership on the Council automatically terminates; or
   (b) if a member of the Council is suspended, that person’s membership on the Council is suspended for the same period of time as the registration is suspended; or
   (c) if a member of the Council elects to take a leave of absence in accordance with the Association’s leave policy, the person’s membership on Council is suspended for the same period of time as the leave, unless the member requests in writing that the Council membership continue during the leave period and the Council accepts and authorizes the continuation on conditions acceptable to the Council.

Temporary Absences

4.8 In the event of a temporary absence or the President’s inability to act, the Vice President has all the powers, duties and responsibilities of the President and in the absence or inability of the President and the Vice President to act, the Council shall appoint a member of the Council to serve as acting President for so long as is required. The person so appointed shall have all the powers, duties and responsibilities of the President.

Vacancies on Council

4.9(1) If the President dies or is otherwise unable to retain office the Vice President becomes President for the remainder of the term of office and remains President for the following consecutive term of office.

(2) If the Vice President dies or is otherwise unable to retain the office or become President in the following year, the Council shall elect another in that party’s place to act as Vice President for the remainder of that term of office and to become President the immediately following term of office.

(3) If an officer of the Council, other than the President or Vice President, dies or is otherwise unable to retain the office the Council may:
   (a) elect from among themselves a person to fill the office for the remainder of the term; or
   (b) leave the office vacant.

(4) Following an election, if there is a vacancy on Council for any reason, the Council may:
   (a) appoint another registered architect or licensed interior designer, as the case may be, to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term; or
   (b) leave the vacancy unfilled for the remainder of the term; or
   (c) fill the vacancy through the established election process at the next scheduled annual Council election; or
   (d) provide for a special election process to fill the vacancy for the remainder of the term.

Failure to Attend Council Meetings

4.10 If an elected member of the Council fails to attend three (3) consecutive meetings of the Council, that individual becomes disqualified as a member of the Council and a vacancy on the Council is created, unless the Council otherwise directs.
Council Meetings

4.11(1) The Council must meet at least six (6) times per year on such dates and at such times and places as it decides. The President may call a meeting of the Council at any time.

(2) Notice of the date, time and place of the Council meetings shall be given by the Executive Director to each member of the Council at least 24 hours before the meeting.

Rules of Procedure

4.12(1) The rules of order and procedure at a meeting of the Council shall be those normally accepted rules of order and procedure governing meetings of a like nature, but if a dispute arises it shall be settled by the chair of the meeting. The chair’s decision is final.

(2) When called upon by the President to do so, the Council may make a resolution through the process of e-mail voting.

Quorum

4.13 The quorum for meetings of the Council is:

(a) six (6) elected members of the Council, or
(b) five (5) elected members of the Council and one member of the public appointed to the Council.

Duties of Officers

4.14(1) It is the duty of the President:

(a) to preside at all meetings of the Association and the Council;
(b) to sign certificates of registration issued pursuant to the Act and General Regulation;
(c) to perform such other functions as are required under these bylaws or by the Council.

(2) Except for the Complaint Review Committee, the President is an ex officio member of all committees of the Council, committees of the Association and the Practice Review Board.

(3) If is the duty of the Vice President to:

(a) sit as an ex officio member of the Registration Committee, Complaint Review Committee and the Practice Review Board;
(b) perform such other functions as are required under these bylaws or by the Council.

(4) It is the duty of the Treasurer to:

(a) sign such documents as are necessary when the Common Seal of the Association is affixed unless the Treasurer is absent or otherwise unable to do so;
(b) report to the Council on the finances of the Association when requested to do so;
(c) present a financial statement to the annual general meeting of the Association; and
(d) perform such other functions as are required under these bylaws or by the Council.

(5) The Executive Director reports to and is responsible to the Council and shall:

(a) prepare an agenda for meetings of the Council, attend the meetings and record the proceedings of meetings of the Council and the Association or cause a record to be made;
(b) receive and manage the correspondence of the Association;
(c) have custody of books of account and property of the Association and ensure that moneys due to the Association are collected and appropriately deposited in an Association account;
(d) furnish the Council with such information and reports as may be requested by the Council;
(e) with the approval of the Council, employ such persons as are necessary for the purposes of the Association, fix their remuneration and when necessary their terms and conditions of employment.

Appointments

4.15(1) The Council shall appoint:

(a) an auditor who shall be a member in good standing with the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Alberta.
(b) an individual as Registrar in accordance with section 7 of the Act.

(2) Unless a contract of employment otherwise provides, every person appointed by the Council holds office at the pleasure of the Council.
Auditor

4.16 The auditor shall examine the books, accounts and assets and liabilities of the Association and audit the financial records of the Association as at December 31 each year, or more often if so required by the Council, and present a statement and report of the financial position of the Association to the Council for presentation to each annual general meeting.

Duties of the Registrar

4.17(1) The Registrar shall:
   (a) perform such duties as are specified in the Act
   (b) keep the Registers and records up to date; and
   (c) perform such other duties as are assigned by the Council.

(2) The Council may appoint an individual as acting Registrar who shall act as the Registrar in the absence or inability of the Registrar to act or when the office of Registrar is vacant.

(3) An acting Registrar, so appointed, has all the powers and duties of the Registrar under the Act, General Regulation and this bylaw.

(4) The Registrar reports to and is responsible to the Council.

PART 5
COMMITTEES

Standing Committees

5.1(1) The standing committees of the Association are the Registration Committee, the Practice Review Board, the Complaint Review Committee, and the Joint Board. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Part, nothing in this Part applies to the standing committees.

(2) In accordance with section 12 of the Act, the Registration Committee is hereby established;

(3) For the purpose of section 12(3) of the Act, notice by the Registration Committee of its approval of the registration of an individual as a registered architect or licensed interior designer shall be made available to the membership through such printed or electronic communication as determined by the Council.

Education Committee

5.2 In accordance with section 47 of the General Regulation the Education Committee is hereby established to administer the compulsory continuing education program in accordance with the program rules established by the Council and as specified in section 47 of the General Regulation.

Executive Committee

5.3(1) An executive committee of the Council may be established to act as a committee tending to the affairs of the Association arising from and between meetings of the Council, in accordance with direction and terms of reference provided by the Council.

(2) The Executive Committee shall be comprised of at least four (4) Council members elected by the Council and shall include the President, the Vice President, the Past President, the Treasurer, and the Executive Director ex officio and non-voting. Should any one of these members be unable to serve, Council may appoint another member of Council to take their place.

Other Committees

5.4(1) The Council shall:
   (a) determine the membership requirements and term of office of committees of the Council;
   (b) designate the chair and, if necessary, vice-chair of the committees; and
   (c) determine the functions, duties and responsibilities of the committees.

(2) The Council may appoint such other committees of the Council or establish committees of the Association as the Council considers necessary and shall designate the chair and if necessary, the vice-chair of each committee so appointed.

(3) A committee of the Council or a committee of the Association may be composed of such individuals as the Council considers necessary and may include persons who are not registered architects, licensed interior designers or members of the Association.
(4) Individuals appointed to a committee may be appointed for a fixed period or periods of time but not all members need be appointed for the same period of time.

(5) Individuals appointed to a committee may have their appointments terminated at any time by the Council or have the designation of chair or vice-chair revoked, as the case may be.

(6) Notwithstanding anything in this section, the Council may delegate to the chair of any committee that is not a standing committee, the ability to appoint or dismiss members of that committee.

(7) The Council may establish rules of order and procedure for the conduct of business of a committee established by it.

(8) If no rules of order and procedure are established by the Council the order and procedure at meetings of a committee shall be those normally accepted rules of order and procedure governing meetings of a like nature, but if a dispute arises the dispute shall be settled by the chair of the meeting and the chair’s decision is final.

Vacancies

5.5(1) If a vacancy occurs on a committee of the Council or a committee of the Association, the Council or if so delegated by Council, the chair, may:
   (a) appoint an individual as member of the committee for the remainder of the term, or
   (b) leave the vacancy unfilled.

(2) Pending the appointment of an individual by the Council or chair under subsection (1), the President may make a temporary appointment.

(3) Notwithstanding a vacancy in the membership of a committee of the Council or a committee of the Association, the remaining members, if at least a quorum remain on the committee, have and may exercise the functions and responsibilities of the committee.

(4) In the absence or inability to act of the chair of a committee, a vice-chair shall act as chair and in the absence or inability to act of a vice-chair the members present at the meeting shall elect a member to act as chair for that meeting.

Expenses

5.6(1) Except for the members of the public appointed by the Minister, a member of the Council or a member of a committee of the Council is entitled to be reimbursed for reasonable travelling, living and accommodation expenses while engaged in the business of the Association, other than in connection with annual general meetings or special general meetings.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), the President is entitled to be reimbursed for travelling, living and accommodation expenses at annual general meetings and special general meetings.

Costs from an Investigation, Review, Hearing or Appeal

5.7 If the Complaint Review Committee, the Practice Review Board or the Council makes an order as to the payment of costs of the investigation, review, hearing or appeal or any of them under section 51(1)(a) of the Act, those costs may include all or any of the following costs and expenses:
   (a) any transportation, accommodation and living expenses paid to a person conducting a preliminary investigation or a practice review or a member of the Complaint Review Committee, the Practice Review Board or the Council involved in investigating or hearing the matter;
   (b) any honorarium or payment made to a person referred to in clause (a) for participating in the matter;
   (c) cost of any transcript;
   (d) witness fees;
   (e) cost of renting rooms, renting recording equipment or hiring a reporter to take a transcript of the evidence;
   (f) fees payable to the solicitor acting on behalf of the Association or the investigated person, as the case may be;
   (g) cost of the staff time in preparing for and attending the hearing and in preparing and distributing the decision;
   (h) any other expenses incurred that are attributable to the investigation, review, hearing or an appeal resulting from it.

Appointment to Other Bodies

5.8 When a request is made to the Association for the appointment or nomination of a registered architect or other person to a committee, panel or any other body, the Council shall make the appointment or nomination if it agrees that the appointment or nomination should be made.

(3) The Registrar is the only person entitled to issue a stamp to a joint firm in accordance with the Act and must be returned:
   (a) in any of the circumstances described in the Act; or
   (b) if the joint firm is wound up or otherwise ceases to be a joint firm.

Control of Seals and Stamps

9.111(1) A seal or stamp issued to an authorized entity under section 20 of the Act must at all times remain under the direct control of the authorized entity and must be applied by the authorized entity or by a person acting under the immediate and direct control of the authorized entity to all plans, specifications, reports or documents of a professional nature that have been authored by the authorized entity or which have been prepared under the supervision of the authorized entity and for which the authorized entity assumes professional responsibility.

(2) A seal or stamp must be accompanied by the signature of the authorized entity to whom it is issued and the date on which it is applied. The seal or stamp must be produced solely for the purpose of the project documents to which it is applied as evidence that the documents were prepared under the direct supervision and control of the authorized entity.

(3) A seal or stamp may only be used while the authorized entity is registered pursuant to the Act.

PART 10
FEES, DUES AND LEVIES

Registered Architects, Licensed Interior Designers, Architects Corporations, Licensed Interior Design Corporations, and Firms

10.1(1) Each registered architect and licensed interior designer shall pay the Association such sum in respect of each of the following matters as is prescribed by resolution of the Council:
   (a) a registration fee payable on registration as a registered architect or licensed interior designer; and
   (b) an annual fee payable on registration and thereafter due and payable on or before December 15 in each year for the following calendar year.
(2) Each architect’s corporation, licensed interior design corporation and firm shall pay the Association such fee in respect of each of the following matters as is prescribed by resolution of the Council:

(a) a registration fee payable on registration as an architect’s corporation, licensed interior design corporation or firm; and
(b) an annual fee payable on registration and thereafter on or before December 15 in each year for the following calendar year.

(3) The fees prescribed by the Council under (1) and (2) for licensed interior designers, licensed interior design corporations and licensed interior design firms shall not exceed the equivalent fees prescribed by the Council with respect to registered architects, architects corporations and architects firms.

Joint Firms

10.2 Each joint firm shall pay the Association such fee in respect of each of the following matters as is prescribed by resolution of the Council:

(a) a registration fee payable on registration as a joint firm; and
(b) an annual fee payable on registration and thereafter on or before December 15 in each year for the following calendar year.

Other Members

10.3 An Associate Member, Intern Architect, Intern Interior Designer, Retired Member, Student Member, Affiliate Member and Syllabus Students in Training shall pay the Association such sum in respect of each of the following matters as is prescribed by resolution of the Council:

(a) a registration fee payable on registration as a member; and
(b) an annual fee payable on registration and thereafter due and payable on or before December 15 in each year for the following calendar year.

Restricted Practitioners

10.4(1) Each restricted practitioner shall pay the Association an annual fee payable on or before December 15 in each year for the following calendar year.

(2) The sum prescribed by the Council under subsection (1) shall not exceed the equivalent sum prescribed by the Council with respect to a registered architect with a seal.

Visiting Project Architect

10.5(1) Each visiting project architect shall pay to the Association:

(a) a registration fee payable on registration as a visiting project architect of such sum as is prescribed by the Council but not exceeding the sum established by the Council for the registration of a registered architect; and
(b) an annual fee based on the cost of project construction. Dues are required on a per project basis for visiting licenses.

(2) Visiting licenses must be kept in force for one year following completion of a project. The annual fee is applicable and due for each of these years on December 15 for the following calendar year.

Visiting Project Interior Designers

10.6(1) Each visiting project interior designer shall pay to the Association:

(a) a registration fee payable on registration as a visiting project interior designer of such sum as is prescribed by the Council but not exceeding the sum established by the Council for the registration of a licensed interior designer; and
(b) an annual fee based on the cost of project construction. Dues are required on a per project basis for visiting licenses.

(2) Visiting licenses must be kept in force for one year following completion of a project. The annual fee is applicable and due for each of these years on December 15 for the following calendar year.

Pro-Rated Fees

10.7 If an individual registers with the Association in a category of membership on or after July 1 in any year, the annual fee payable for that year shall be half the annual fee due or levy payable pursuant to the applicable resolution of the Council. This discount does not apply to corporate or firm registrations.
Late Payment

10.8 If the annual dues are not paid by December 15, a penalty may be assessed and added to the balance owing, as determined by the Council.

Special Levy

10.9 If special circumstances arise requiring additional funding for the Association, the Council may impose a special levy of not more than $100 per year on each registered architect, restricted practitioner and licensed interior designer.

Administration Fees

10.10 The Association may charge an administration fee directed toward recovery of costs expended by the Association to provide services specific to members including, without limitation:
   a) initial registration administration costs;
   b) amendments or changes to existing registrations including individual, firm or corporate registrations; and
   c) management of delinquent continuing competence program member files.

Special Considerations

10.11 Notwithstanding the time specified for the payment of fees, dues or levies the Council may for compassionate reasons or for any other reason it considers appropriate set another time or times for payment.

Reinstatement

10.12(1) If a registered architect, architect's corporation, architects firm, joint firm, licensed interior designer, interior design corporation or interior design firm whose registration is cancelled is subsequently reinstated that individual, corporation or firm shall pay the same registration fee payable as if that individual, corporation or firm were registering for the first time together with any fees, dues or levies currently due from that individual, corporation or firm.

(2) An Associate Member, Intern Architect, Intern Interior Designer, Student Member, Retired Member, Syllabus Student in Training or Affiliate Member whose registration is cancelled by virtue of non-payment of fees, dues or levies may have their name reinstated to the records of the Association by applying in writing to the Council and paying the unpaid sum which resulted in the individual's cancellation together with any fees, dues or levies currently due from that individual.

PART 11
AMENDMENTS TO BYLAWS AND REGULATIONS

Procedure

11.1(1) Subject to this section, new bylaws may be enacted, existing bylaws may be amended or existing bylaws may be repealed by a simple majority of voting members present at an annual general meeting or special general meeting.

(2) If a voting member wishes to propose enactment, amendments or repeal of bylaws at the annual general meeting or at a special general meeting that individual must
   a) give notice in writing to the Executive Director, and
   b) provide the Executive Director with a copy of the new bylaws, the amendments or repeal the individual will propose.

(3) The Executive Director, on receipt of a motion to enact, amend or repeal bylaws, shall send a copy of the proposed enactment, amendments or repeal to each voting member or advise each voting member as to the availability of an electronic version of the document at least 15 days before the annual general meeting or the special general meeting at which the motion is to be proposed.

(4) If the Council wishes to enact new bylaws, propose amendments to these bylaws or repeal bylaws, the President may do so on behalf of the Council in accordance with subsection (2).

(5) The Council may authorize a mail vote to obtain ratification by the voting members of amendments to the Bylaws as required under 11.1. Such a vote shall be conducted in accordance with Part 12 of these Bylaws.

(6) Consistent with Section 9(2) of the Architects Act, the Council may authorize a mail vote to obtain ratification by the Membership of changes to the General Regulation. Such a vote shall be conducted in accordance with Part 12 of these Bylaws.
PART 12
MAIL VOTE

Procedure

12.1(1) If the Council wishes to have the Association hold a mail vote on any matter or question, it shall be conducted in accordance with this Part.

(2) Registered architects, restricted practitioners and licensed interior designers are entitled to vote in a mail vote. If the Council so directs, voting may be conducted by e-mail.

(3) The form of the question or the matter to be put to a mail vote shall be determined by the Council.

(4) The Council shall appoint at least two (2) scrutineers to count the mail votes.

(5) When the form of the question or matter has been settled it shall be sent to each voting member with
(a) such directions as to voting as the Council considers necessary,
(b) such information as background or explanation as the Council directs, and
(c) a date and time, specified by the Council, before which the mail vote must be received by the Executive Director.

(6) Immediately following the date and time specified for closing of the mail vote, the scrutineers shall count the votes and certify the results to the President who shall notify the membership accordingly.

PART 13
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

Annual Information

13.1 Every authorized entity shall annually review and confirm to the Association the following information:
(a) the title, business address(es) and telephone number(s) of the individual and firm; and
(b) the names of the partners, shareholders, directors and officers of the firm and the ownership and participation among them and each individual's place of residence and the registered office of the corporation.

Time Extensions

13.2(1) When in this by-law a certain day is fixed on which or by which certain things are to be done or proceedings had or taken and he day so fixed is a Saturday, Sunday or holiday, the things or proceedings shall be done, had or taken on or by the next day that follows the fixed day and is not a holiday.

(2) If any thing to be done by the Council or individual within a number of days or at a time fixed by or under these by-laws, cannot be or is not so done, the Council, in its sole discretion, from time to time may appoint a further or other time for doing it, whether the time at or within which it ought to have been done has or has not arrived or expired, as the case may be.

(3) Any thing done at or within the time specified by the Council is as valid as if it had been done at or within the time fixed by or under this by-law.

(4) Where by this by-law a certain day is fixed on or by which certain things are to be done or proceedings taken, if it appears that the date was fixed having regard to an earlier fixed date on or by which certain other things are to be done or proceedings taken then, notwithstanding anything in this by-law, if default is made in respect of the earlier date a like delay may be permitted by the Council in respect of the later date.

Inability to Act

13.3 If under this by-law a person is required to take some action or do some thing and this individual is absent, unable or unwilling to take the action or do the thing, the Council may appoint another person to take the action or do the thing in this individual's place.

Service of Notice

13.4(1) When a notice or any other thing is permitted or required to be given pursuant to the bylaws, to
(a) an authorized entity or other member of the Association, the notice may be given:
   (i) by delivering or mailing the notice to that person's business address shown on the appropriate register or record of the Association; or
   (ii) by personal service;
(b) the Council, Association, Executive Director, Registrar or other officer of the Association, the notice may be given by delivering or mailing it to the head office of the Association.

(2) If one or more registered architects do not receive a notice served in accordance with subsection (1), an annual general meeting or a special general meeting that is the subject of the notice may nevertheless be held as if the notice or notices had been received.

PART 14
FORMS AND LOG BOOKS

Forms

14.1 The Council shall prescribe the forms for use under the Act, General Regulation and bylaws.

Required Form for Reviewers

14.2 A report to be prepared by a reviewer at the direction of the Practice Review Board pursuant to section 60(1) of the General Regulation shall at a minimum contain the following information:

(a) name of the authorized entity;
(b) date of review and source of request for review;
(c) areas of practice reviewed; and
(d) findings relating to practice.

Log Books

14.3(1) For the purpose of determining whether an applicant has completed all or any part of the practical training, the Council may authorize the preparation of log books containing such information as will enable the Registration Committee to determine at least the following matters:

(a) the name of the individual concerned;
(b) the name of the individual who supervised the practical training, and
(c) the length and sufficiency of the practical training in each of the required subject areas.

(2) In those cases where a log book is impractical or impossible to complete the Registration Committee may specify another method to determine whether the practical training has been satisfactorily completed.

(3) The Registration Committee or the Practice Review Board may from time to time request an intern architect or intern interior designer to send the individual’s log book to the Registration Committee or the Practice Review Board for review.

(4) If the Registration Committee or the Practice Review Board is not satisfied that an intern architect or intern interior designer is gaining appropriate practical training and experience it may:

(a) notify the intern architect or intern interior designer and the intern architect's or intern interior designer’s employer or either of them accordingly;
(b) issue a warning that the practical training is insufficient or inadequate in whole or in part and provide guidance for future practical training; and
(c) endorse the log book with such comments as it considers appropriate.

(5) If an intern architect or intern interior designer:

(a) fails to comply with the guidance provided by the Registration Committee or Practice Review Board, or
(b) within five (5) years of the registration of the person as an intern architect or intern interior designer or such longer period as may be permitted by the Council, the intern architect or intern interior designer fails to qualify for registration as a registered architect or licensed interior designer the Practice Review Board or the Registration Committee may recommend to the Council that the individual’s membership as an intern architect or intern interior designer be terminated and the Council may make its decision accordingly.

PART 15
COMING INTO FORCE

15.1 This bylaw comes into force on the same day that it is approved by the membership.
