Job Description

Thinkspace Architecture® Planning Interior Design is a client focused design firm comprised of a team of talented architects, planners, and designers who are experts in solving complex problems. We have been providing a full range of professional architectural services since 1963 and over the years have developed a specialized expertise in institutional and public sector projects. From our offices located in Western Canada including Surrey, Kelowna, and Edmonton, we have built a significant portfolio of projects valued at up to $200 million. Our extensive design experience primarily focuses on Education, Post-Secondary, Healthcare, Civic, and Commercial sectors. We are committed to quality design and approach our work with a common set of values: Curiosity, Collaboration, Commitment, Client Focused and Accountability. These shared values influence how we approach our work and how we rise to the unique challenges that each new project brings. To learn more about our firm, please visit our website at www.thinkspace.ca

We currently have an opportunity for an Intermediate Interior Designer to join our Surrey office. Under the guidance of the Interior Design Lead, you will be responsible for:

- Collaborating on and leading interiors projects, including programming client needs, conceptual design, schematic design and design development
- Developing space planning concepts and generating program documents
- Participating in selection of furniture systems and specifications
- Providing project team coordination for the finished plans, specifications, and material selections required for construction
- Working with clients, consultants and contractors to meet overall project objectives on schedule and within budget
- Participating in the construction administration of projects and reviewing of submittals and finish samples
- Assisting in managing client expectations, team communication and consultant coordination
- Contributing to office activities, initiatives, and learning programs
